Honoring Leadership: Tributes & Transitions

Wolfe Retires After a Legacy of Leadership

After more than 25 years of visionary leadership, Dr. Rich Wolfe has officially stepped down as Chief of Emergency Medicine at BIDMC, effective July 1. His inspiring commitment to innovation, education, and advancing the practice of emergency medicine has shaped the field nationally and left a lasting impact on generations of clinicians, researchers, and educators. While retiring from his role as Chief, Dr. Wolfe will continue contributing to the department through research, collaboration, and clinical work.

Dr. Carlo Rosen Named Interim Chair

Effective July 1, Dr. Carlo Rosen has been named Interim Chief of Emergency Medicine at BIDMC. Prior to this role, Dr. Rosen served as Executive Vice Chair, overseeing the HMFP Emergency Medicine Network of eight emergency departments and five urgent care centers caring for more than 350,000 patients annually. He is the founding program director of the BIDMC Harvard Affiliated Emergency Medicine Residency and has held roles as Vice Chair of Education and Associate Graduate Medical Director at BIDMC. Dr. Rosen's research focuses on trauma care, diagnostic imaging, mild traumatic brain injury, and diagnostic error. He is an Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School and an associate editor of The Clinical Practice of Emergency Medicine. We look forward to his continued leadership and vision in this new chapter.
