New Staff

The Center for Sleep & Cognition (CfSC) is pleased to welcome Jacob Williams, who is joining our lab through the Northeastern University Co-op Program, and Jinwon Chang, an undergraduate research student from Williams College.

We are pleased to announce that Meghan Good, MD, has joined our psychiatry faculty here at Beth Israel Deaconess Center. Dr. Good attended medical school at the University of Louisville where she also completed her psychiatric training, receiving numerous awards. This past year she has been our Early Psychosis Fellow, working within the ASPIRE CLINIC, the RE-SET clinic at MGH, and the Discovery Center at the Edinburg Center. She is passionate about her clinical work, research, and teaching. In July, she will be the Medical Director of ASPIRE, as well as an Attending Psychiatrist at the Rabb General Psychiatry Clinic and Bowdoin Center. She is actively involved in her research in schizophrenia.

Austin Pothikamjorn, who recently graduated from Penn, joined the Division of Addiction Psychiatry as a research assistant.

Xiadi Zhai, Harvard Medical Student, spent 8 weeks with the Division of Addiction Psychiatry as a BIDMC Shapiro Scholar.

Julie Byler, DO, joined the Department of Medicine and will be working with the Division of Addiction Psychiatry on their state grant to address Opioid Use Disorder.
